Talented students
Students who are excelling in subjects such as fine art, drama, graphics, physical education, textiles and music.
Honours tie students
Students who are nominated for outstanding achievement. This may be in an area of sporting, academic, leadership, service etc.
More able students
Students identified using challenging aptitude test and the highest key stage results.
Student governing body approves honours tie applications in termly sessions. Current approvals were awarded to students who were competing at National level in fencing, gymnastics, athletics and cricket.
Most able/talented and widening participation provision
Six strategies for effective learning—tutor time sessions which facilitate metacognition and support understanding of recall, dual coding, elaboration, concrete examples, interleaving and spaced practice.
Oxford University sleepover - open day in Oxford and FREE B&B rooms at St Hilda's College for prospective GA candidates Oxplore Live: Do we see colour the same ? Live broadcast for year 12 students.
Students attending variety of sustainable programmes and masterclasses including: Robot Wars, Catastrophe on the Campus, Microorganisms, Monsters and Infection Control, University Christmas at University of Surrey
Students who are underrepresented at higher education.
Widening participation