

Homework:

- Keep a record of a range of at least 5 media texts that you consume between now and September - makes notes on what you feel is the appeal of this particular text (i.e. why are/were you, and others, attracted to it in the first place and what 'pleasures' does it provide?)
- Write a response (of approx. 500 words/1 side of A4) to the question: How does the trailer for Straight Outta Compton communicate meaning in relation to the 'Ganja Rap' music genre? (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-F5WcFPDzko>)
