

Promoting British Values at George Abbot School

Democracy	Individual Liberty	The Rule of Law	Tolerance	Challenging anti-British values
Election of School Council from the year council who make decisions on school issues	School Council who make decisions on school issues	School rules emphasise rules and justice	RE curriculum on different religions and customs	Assemblies on the British values using and safe use of internet
Hustings of Sixth Form 'Top Ten' including Head girl and boy	House System promotes personal development	PC Claire Jones speaks to students in assembly about law and criminality	International School with visits to and from various countries	Early parental contact to develop parent relationships
Election of Form Representatives who sit on the year council	Peer mentors who support individuals	Assemblies on the importance of the rule of law	PSE curriculum on tolerance throughout all years	Clear systems of reporting concerns using Staff Alert
Election of Games Captains in forms	Staff alert supports students who need support	High standards of uniform indicate the importance of presenting and acting in a respectful way	Restorative justice used by pastoral staff	Outside speakers from PREVENT have presented to staff and all year groups
Modules in PSE/ History/ Government and Politics (A level) on democracy	Ambassadors and student leadership	Extra-curricular activities require high levels of discipline	Anti-bullying message in assemblies and in the school rules	Continuing training of Designated safeguarding Lead and Key Stage Managers
Mayor visit to discuss local government structure and issues	UN Human Rights taught in Y7 and Y11 PSE	The school RESPECT values are deeply rooted in the reciprocal morality of fairness and justice	Strong focus on homophobic and racist language	The RESPECT values emphasise TRADITION in British values
Strong emphasis on student voice to guide decisions including recruitment	Expression of individual belief and views encouraged in RE	Rewards and sanctions in the school indicate fairness and justice	Focus on good manners which is modelled by staff and rewarded through RESPECT credits.	Bullying log which records incidents of prejudiced based incidents
Mock student general elections where Y10 students canvased for votes in assemblies	Assemblies on liberty and human rights	Y9 PSE unit on laws and rules	The RESPECT values have EQUALITY and SUPPORT as key aspects	Restorative justice used to educate those involved
Link with Guildford Borough for events such as Commonwealth Day	Personal development through residential trips such as Y8 residential to PGL or Barcelona, DofE, Tanzania and the ski trip	Y10 RE unit on Crime and Punishment for all students	A truly comprehensive school which treats all equally with the moto non sibi sed toti (not for one but for all)	Persistent offenders brought to Behaviour Panel