

Curriculum Overview 2021/2022	Subject: Geography	Year Group: 7
Feedback How students improve and progress (This section will be linked to SIMS reports)	How will students receive feedback in your subject? Frequency and form? Verbal feedback on homework and work in lesson – every lesson Feedback on low stakes quizzes – once a week PEER feedback (guided by teacher modelling – once/twice a half term Written feedback on assessments – once a half term Baseline tracker – students are encouraged to review the baseline tracker feedback form that identifies a series of tasks that can be completed following each assessment How can parents help students? Where can parents access feedback? Written feedback can be found on green feedback forms in student books, attached to assessment. Encourage students to review their PLCs regularly Ask your son/daughter for their baseline tracker and discuss it with them. This tracker will present assessment attainment throughout the year. How will you ensure parents and students understand the next steps to enable progress? Verbal confirmation and articulation of actions required during the lesson Students will have to respond to the feedback during the lesson Who should they contact and how? Please contact you son/daughter’s class teacher if you have any questions related to improvement/feedback

Curriculum Overview 2021/2022	Subject: Geography	Year Group: 8
Feedback How students improve and progress (This section will be linked to SIMS reports)	How will students receive feedback in your subject? Frequency and form? Verbal feedback on homework and work in lesson – every lesson Feedback on low stakes quizzes – once a week PEER feedback (guided by teacher modelling – once/twice a half term Written feedback on assessments – once a half term Baseline tracker – students are encouraged to review the baseline tracker feedback form that identifies a series of tasks that can be completed following each assessment How can parents help students? Where can parents access feedback? Written feedback can be found on green feedback forms in student books, attached to assessment. Encourage students to review their PLCs regularly Ask your son/daughter for their baseline tracker and discuss it with them. This tracker will present assessment attainment throughout the year. How will you ensure parents and students understand the next steps to enable progress? Verbal confirmation and articulation of actions required during the lesson Students will have to respond to the feedback during the lesson Who should they contact and how? Please contact you son/daughter’s class teacher if you have any questions related to improvement/feedback

Curriculum Overview 2021/2022	Subject: Geography	Year Group: 9
Feedback How students improve and progress (This section will be linked to SIMS reports)	How will students receive feedback in your subject? Frequency and form? Verbal feedback on homework and work in lesson – every lesson Feedback on low stakes quizzes – once a week PEER feedback (guided by teacher modelling – once/twice a half term Written feedback on assessments – once a half term Baseline tracker – students are encouraged to review the baseline tracker feedback form that identifies a series of tasks that can be completed following each assessment How can parents help students? Where can parents access feedback? Written feedback can be found on green feedback forms in student books, attached to assessment. Encourage students to review their PLCs regularly Ask your son/daughter for their baseline tracker and discuss it with them. This tracker will present assessment attainment throughout the year. How will you ensure parents and students understand the next steps to enable progress? Verbal confirmation and articulation of actions required during the lesson Students will have to respond to the feedback during the lesson Who should they contact and how? Please contact you son/daughter’s class teacher if you have any questions related to improvement/feedback

Curriculum Overview 2021/2022	Subject: Geography	Year Group: 10
Feedback How students improve and progress (This section will be linked to SIMS reports)	How will students receive feedback in your subject? Frequency and form? Verbal feedback on homework and work in lesson – every lesson Feedback on low stakes quizzes – once a week PEER feedback (guided by teacher modelling – once/twice a half term Written feedback on assessments – once a half term Baseline tracker – students are encouraged to review the baseline tracker feedback form that identifies a series of tasks that can be completed following each assessment How can parents help students? Where can parents access feedback? Written feedback can be found on green feedback forms in student books, attached to assessment. Encourage students to review their PLCs regularly Ask your son/daughter for their baseline tracker and discuss it with them. This tracker will present assessment attainment throughout the year. How will you ensure parents and students understand the next steps to enable progress? Verbal confirmation and articulation of actions required during the lesson Students will have to respond to the feedback during the lesson Who should they contact and how? Please contact you son/daughter’s class teacher if you have any questions related to improvement/feedback

Curriculum Overview 2021/2022	Subject: Geography	Year Group: 11
Feedback How students improve and progress (This section will be linked to SIMS reports)	How will students receive feedback in your subject? Frequency and form? Verbal feedback on homework and work in lesson – every lesson Feedback on low stakes quizzes – once a week PEER feedback (guided by teacher modelling – once/twice a half term Written feedback on assessments – once a half term Baseline tracker – students are encouraged to review the baseline tracker feedback form that identifies a series of tasks that can be completed following each assessment How can parents help students? Where can parents access feedback? Written feedback can be found on green feedback forms in student books, attached to assessment. Encourage students to review their PLCs regularly Ask your son/daughter for their baseline tracker and discuss it with them. This tracker will present assessment attainment throughout the year. How will you ensure parents and students understand the next steps to enable progress? Verbal confirmation and articulation of actions required during the lesson Students will have to respond to the feedback during the lesson Who should they contact and how? Please contact you son/daughter’s class teacher if you have any questions related to improvement/feedback	